For the prevention and cure of
BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended
HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Proposals

FOR Publishing by Subscription, and now ready for the press, a series of historical volumes, which when finished will assume the title of Universal History Americanised; or, an historical view of Europe, Asia, Africa and America, from the earliest records to the nineteenth century—with a particular reference to the state of society, literature, religion, and form of government in the United States of America.
BY DAVID RAMSAY, M. D.
"Life is so short and time so valuable, that it were happy for us if all great works were reduced to their quintessence." Sir William Jones.

PROSPECTUS.

ASIA.
The Asiatic part of this work contains a general view of the antediluvians—of the general deluge—of the re-settlement of the Globe after that great event—of the primitive postdiluvian nations which were formed in Asia, the cradle of the world. Their various ramifications, revolutions, and of the general course of Empire.

AFRICA.
The African part, contains a concise history of Egypt, arthage, Numidia, Mauritania, Abyssinia, of the Piratical States, and the Hottentots, with a grouped view of its uncivilized settlements.

EUROPE.
The European part, contains the history of Greece and Rome, from their origin to their dissolution—of the various nations which were conquered by them—and of the nations by which the Romans themselves were finally conquered, and of the nations which were formed from the fragments of the Roman Empire, and the various revolutions of the latter, together with a view of the nations which never were subjected to the Romans.

AMERICA
The American part, contains a general history of the Western continent, under the heads of Free, European, and Aboriginal or unconquered America. The first contains a history of the United States, from their first settlement as English Colonies, till the present time.—The second, of all parts dependant on Europe.—And the third, of all that are still owned by the Aborigines.
It is expected that the whole will be comprised in 10 or 12 octavo volumes of between four and five hundred pages each—to be printed in Philadelphia, on good paper and fair types, for $3 1-3 per volume, in sheep binding, or $4 1-3 Calf Gilt, to be paid for on delivery.

AUTHORITIES.
This work has been in contemplation upwards of 40 years. The project of it was conceived in 1786, on reading the Universal History, then recently edited in 60 volumes, by a society of gentlemen in England. The original idea of extracting the quintessence of that voluminous work, which contained the most complete system of history the world had then seen, has ever since been enlarging and improving by an attentive perusal of the histories written by Robertson, Hume, Gibbon, and other modern authors—of the Asiatic researches—of the works of Sir William Jones, and other learned Orientalists—the publications of intelligent travellers, who, in the course of the last half century have explored almost every region of the Globe. These collectively have thrown a blaze of light on countries comparatively unknown, and on portions, both of ancient and modern history which were confused and obscure at the period when the writers of the Universal History published their work. The arrangement of materials collected from these sources commenced in the year 1780, when, in consequence of the surrender of Charleston to Sir Henry Clinton, the author was suddenly released from a sea of business and sent as a prisoner of war to the British Garrison then in St. Augustine, and there confined for eleven months, without any peculiar employment. Steady progress has been made for the last ten years in correcting and transcribing the work for publication.

UNITED STATES.
The History of the United States is given at full length—that of foreign countries is more or less expended or contracted in proportion to the intrinsic importance of each—its tendency to illustrate portions of Holy Writ—the Greek and Latin Classics—and also in proportion to its connexion with the U. States, or as furnishing useful practical information to its citizens, or as the paternal soil of their ancestors.
The above sketch of the nature and objects of this immense work, which has occupied the attention of the Author for upwards of 40 years, was found among his papers, and is now given to the public in his own words. Since that period, a few chapters have been added by the Reverend SAMUEL STANHOPE SMITH, which brings it down to the close of the last war.
The publication commences with a third impression of the History of the U. States, in three volumes, which is all that has ever appeared. The whole will not be delivered under 15 or 20 months. It is proper to state, that the gentlemen who have the direction of it are neither booksellers nor printers, and receive no pecuniary consideration for their trouble—but are willing to make the necessary advances to carry it into execution provided the sale is warranted by public patronage. The profits arising are to be appropriated for the support and education of his children, four of each sex: to them its success is a matter of deep importance.

FROM THE RALEIGH REGISTER.

ORCHARDS.

"Let us cultivate the ground, that the poor, as well as the rich, may be filled; and happiness and peace be established throughout our borders."

The utility of an orchard, or orchards, both for private use and profit, stored with the various sorts of fruit trees, must be very great; as well as afford infinite pleasure from the delightful appearance it makes from early spring, till late in autumn: in spring, the various trees in blossom are highly ornamental; in summer, the pleasure is heightened by observing the various fruits advancing to perfection; and as the season advances, the mature growth of the different sorts arriving to perfection in regular succession, from May until the end of October, must afford great delight, as well as profit. The feelings of a lover of improvement can scarcely be expressed on observing the almost universal inattention paid to the greater number of our orchards, and that people who go to a considerable expense in planting and establishing them, afterwards leave them to the rude hand of nature; as if the art and ingenuity of man availed nothing, or that they merited no further care: however, it is to be hoped that the good example, and the consequent success, of the careful and industrious, will stimulate others to pay the necessary attention to these departments, and thereby to serve themselves as well as the community at large.

As orchards, in their general acceptation, comprehend a variety of fruit trees, it may perhaps be proper to remark, that the observations which will follow under this head, will be exclusively confined to apple trees. There is no other fruit tree which so richly deserves the attention and cultivation of the husbandman, as the apple; it will thrive and live in almost every climate; it yields a fruit equalled by none in abundance and excellence, and a liquor which, if properly made, little inferior to the best wine.

It behoves every philanthropist to encourage the cultivation of orchards and the making of good cider, by way of discouraging the too general use of ardent spirits. Good cider would be a national saving of wealth, by expelling foreign liquors; and of life, by expelling the use of ardent spirits.

The mismanagement of apple trees often begins in the nursery by leaving suckers from the roots, by letting the trees grow so crooked as to become incapable of a good shape, and especially by leaving branches for two or three years, which must be cut away when the tree is planted, because they are too low, or crowd the head.

This incumbrance has wasted a great part of the sap, which would otherwise have increased the regular growth. The wounds occasioned by this lopping, cannot soon be covered with new bark, and in the meantime often produce a decay. Sometimes this neglect is continued in part, when the trees are removed from the nursery, because some persons regret the loss of branches, which would bear the same, or the next year, and others cannot foresee the bad consequences of keeping them which will increase with their growth, and force a much worse amputation.

The head of every tree should begin at least six feet from the ground; and of those whose branches are sloping, eight. When the head has been formed so low as five feet, but is well grown, it may be continued; but then its branches ought to be trimmed near the stem, and by some contrivance be enabled to rise. The head ought to have but one leader, because two seldom succeed, as the inward lateral boughs will cross each other. Its branches should be equi-distant, and not more than six, nor less than four. If the tree has ample root, and a strong body, the head may retain an upper tier, provided it is two feet above the first; but if not, it is best to leave only such upper branches that have this height, and form the others from good buds. It is a bad practice to shorten the top of the branches, except a little where they are too slender for their length; by excess, it may be very difficult to procure a good leader—the branches will grow busy, and be later in bearing, because the first fruit comes towards their ends.

Trees ought not to be kept too long in the nursery, because the small space allotted for them will not permit a regular expansion either of the root or branches; besides, the removal, however careful, often kills them, or causes a lingering decay. An accurate inspection of the roots is necessary, for taking away any rotten parts, and worms, and also for cutting off those that cross each other, or are too close. None but long ramblers ought to be shortened, and they should be spread equi-distant so far as is practicable, which may be facilitated by wooden pegs. The too common fault of squeezing them into small holes, has ruined many trees; the holes must be wide enough to extend at least one foot beyond the limits of the longest roots, and the mould be made quite mellow.

The depth of the holes should not extend beyond the natural good soil; if you make a deep hole, bason like, into the clay bottom, or unfriendly sub-soil, which is too frequently done, and plant the roots therein, even filling it round with good earth will not do, for as soon as it pushes its roots beyond this, they must enter into the bad and unfriendly soil, which will not fail to bring on the decay of the most healthy tree, and can never afford it suitable juices for perfecting delicious fruit; besides, the lodgment of waters about the roots in this confined bason, in wet seasons, will cause the tree to become sickly, and to get overrun with moss, and full of canker.

Young apple trees planted shallow and the holes filled up with rich native mould or earth, always succeed best, or more completely insures the success of their living; for in shallow planting, the roots of the young trees are so near the surface as to feel the salutary influence of sun, air and rain. A great orchadist once said, "always plant shallow, and give a top dressing."

A tree well pruned, planted, and secured by stakes against violent winds, will soon acquire a habit of regular growth, and will be easy to keep in good order afterwards. AGRICOLA.

Admiral Penn, after thirty years employment with good success in divers places of eminent trust and honor in his own country—upon a serious reflection not long before his death, spoke to his son in this manner: "Son William, I am weary of the world; I would not live over my days again, if I could command them with a wish; for the snares of life are greater than the fears of death. This troubles me, that I have offended a gracious God, that has followed me to this day. O have a care of sin! that is the sting both of life and death. Three things I commend to you: first, let nothing in this world tempt you to wrong your conscience: I charge you do nothing against your conscience; so will you keep peace at home, which will be a feast to you in a day of trouble. Secondly, whatever you design to do, lay it justly, and time it seasonably; for that gives security and despatch. Lastly, be not troubled at disappointments; for if they may be recovered, do it—if they cannot, trouble is vain. If you could not have helped it, be content; there is often peace and profit in submitting to Providence; for afflictions make wise. If you could have helped it, let not your trouble exceed instruction for another time. These rules will carry you with firmness and comfort through this inconstant world."

LUDICROUS INSTANCE OF PRIDE.

A friend to the elder Scaliger wrote to acquaint him that he should make mention of him in a work that he meant to publish, and wished to know what he should say of him. Were not the answer actually extant, in the printed collection of his letters, it could not be credited. "Endeavor (said he) to collect your best ideas of what Massinissa, what Xenophon, and what Plato were, and your portrait will bear some, although an imperfect, resemblance of me." [Galaxy.

ALEXANDRIA:
WEDNESDAY, APRIL 15, 1818.

From the Nat. Intel. of yesterday.

The bill for the admission of Illinois into the Union, having passed the House of Representatives by a nearly unanimous vote, and been ordered to a third reading in the Senate by a large majority, its passage into a law may be regarded as morally certain. Thus will be added to the Union another state, making the twenty-first in the Confederation.—The number of acres of land in the state is estimated at thirty millions, being about one fifth larger than the state of Ohio—its present population at forty thousand, but increasing with unexampled rapidity.

The unanimity of the vote with which this state is admitted into the association of states, must be highly acceptable to the people of that territory, and, we should think, cannot fail of producing those feelings of cordiality to the sister states, which it is well calculated to excite.

The election which has recently taken place in Massachusetts for governor has terminated in the re election of general John Brooks by a majority, it is supposed of ten thousand votes over Mr. Crowninshield, the republican candidate. The election was thin, not having been contested with the warmth, and of course not with the acrimony, heretofore usual in that state. [ibid.

Yesterday, about two o'clock, the new flag of the United States was hoisted on the flag-staff of the House of Representatives. This is the first flag that has been made since the passage of the act for altering the banner of the nation. It was made in New-York under the direction of the gallant captain Reed, late commander of the privateer General Armstrong. The stars are twenty in number, and so disposed as to form one great star in the centre of a blue field. The stripes are thirteen. The law on this subject goes into operation on the 4th of July next. From the Lexington Reporter.

Extract of a letter from a citizen of Kentucky, now in Philadelphia, dated 1st March, 1818.

"Doctor Holly is on his way to our state. I have heard him preach, and cannot refrain from expressing to you the great pleasure I derived from so brilliant a display of oratory; his eloquence surpasses any description I am capable of giving. His extensive learning and dignity of manners seem to fit him for the station to which he has been chosen in our University. I hazard nothing in assuring you that he will do honor to the institution. His value as a public teacher will be incalculable to the western people, and I sincerely hope he may be induced to accept the appointment. From hence he goes to Baltimore and Washington City, and will probably stay a week in each place; passing through Virginia, he will spend a week with Mr Jefferson, and proceed directly to Lexington."

FRANCE.

The last Essex Register remarks, "The great subject now before Europe is, shall France have an army at command? As France must be considered a conquered country so long as the army of occupation exists, they to whom this army belongs must determine when such an army as France may claim should exist. To deny the privilege of defending itself, is to destroy the political existence of France. To admit an army to be at the command of the nation, is at least to increase the service of the army of occupation. It is indeed a serious question, and by employing it successfully the French would give no little trouble to their victorious neighbors."

The editor of the Boston Centinel, in making translations from French papers to the 16th of February, gives the following:

"One Jacob Hamers, of Ghistelles, (Holland) has claimed a premium for the birth of his thirty-fourth child, by two marriages. He is now, he says, only 71, and expects to have further claims."

Captain Hazard, arrived at Philadelphia from Campeachy, informs, that the Spanish frigate Iphegenie had put in from La Vera Cruz with two millions of dollars, which had been landed, and the frigate condemned as unseaworthy—she had nine Americans on board, who had been taken prisoners from the Patriots, and were on their way to the fortress of Ceuta, in Africa. They were in close confinement when captain Hazard sailed, and denied all communication with their countrymen. Mr. W. D Robinson, of Philadelphia, is one of them.

LOSS OF THE TIPPOO SAIB.

Captain Hazard, from Campeachy, further informs, that the brig Tippoo Saib, with a cargo worth $140,000, sailed from New Orleans to trade on the coast of Campeachy—after cruising two months and finding no chance of admission, her cargo was shifted to a Spanish brig a few days previous to her loss. The Spaniard was seized on entering the port, but expected to be liberated by paying a douceur of 20 or 30 000 dollars. Names of part of those who perished: captain P. Fosse, Claude Gilliden, supercargo, Thomas A. Clagget, mate, John Reynolds, boatswain, Augustus Creuzet, Francisco Antonio, Henry Sloane, Charles Wunerbergh, Antonie Tourain, seamen, John Silvain, steward. Fourteen of the crew saved on pieces of the wreck—some of them after drifting four days. There were 22 prisoners on board the Iphegenie when she arrived at Campeachy, 9 of them Americans, the others French and Spanish being part of the garrison of Bacquillard Pedra. Robinson is stated to have held a lieutenant colonel's commission in the Patriot army—they are sentenced to be confined for life in the fortress of Ceuta.

SALE OF PUBLIC LANDS.

The sale of the public lands in that part of the Alabama Territory which lies north of the Tennessee river closed at Huntsville on the 14th of March. The amount of sales, it is supposed, exceeds four millions of dollars. "Forty-two townships," says the Huntsville Republican, "were offered for sale; and the quantity which would not bring the government price was very inconsiderable: on the other hand, many, indeed very many, places have been purchased by the practical farmer for agricultural purposes, at rates which afford the most convincing evidence of the unexampled prosperity of this important section of the union. From 40 to 70 dollars per acre were repeatedly paid for choice places, estimated for their intrinsic worth. These facts speak volumes on the growing importance of this part of Alabama Territory—no artificial value has been put upon the land by the competition of visionary speculators. Purchases have been, for the most part, made with a view to actual settlement. More than 1,000,000 dollars, the first instalment, must be immediately realized by the government for an inconsiderable portion of their forests of Alabama Territory."

In the same article the editor notices with much feeling the grant of a valuable part of the Alabama Territory, made by government to the French emigrants who have gone to settle there, and indignantly asks, "How will the keepers of the national purse-strings feel when they are convinced by ocular demonstration of their inconsiderate liberality towards a set of strangers, who have not even the pretext of penury or necessity to found their importunate claims upon? What value could they have placed upon the wild lands of this territory, or what consideration could have moved a government, eminent for its expediency and discernment, to grant with such a profuse hand the choicest situations in this 'Garden of America' to a band of foreign speculators, many of whom are already in possession of princely fortunes?"

OF AMELIA-ISLAND.

From the National Intelligencer.

It is impossible for us at present to find room for all the papers transmitted by the president to congress, together with his message of the 25th ult. respecting Amelia Island.

The most interesting and authentic paper is the following, which is entirely corroborated in all its parts by the less formal papers which detail the history of General M'Gregor's views and proceedings:—

Major Bankhead and Capt. Henley to the President, dated Fernandina Amelia-Island, Jan. 10, 1818.

SIR—If any additional testimony were necessary to prove that Gen. Aury had no authority to take possession of this island it may be found in the document under which he claims the right to have acted as he has done. At his urgent solicitation we have carefully examined these documents, and from them it is evident that he has had no privilege or power granted to him, even for the establishment at Galveston or Matagorda, but that which he derived from Don Manuel D. Herrera, who, it appears, was sent by the Mexican congress as minister to the United States, but proceeded no further than the city of New-Orleans. During his stay at that place, a correspondence was opened between him and Aury, and the plan of an establishment at Galveston agreed on. They met at that place, and formed a provisional government of which Aury was made the governor, subject to the confirmation or rejection of the Mexican congress. Before any communication was had with the said congress, it was dissolved and dispersed by the Spanish forces; and Aury, having lost a number of his vessels on the Mexican coast, and unable to maintain his position, either at Galveston or Matagorda, sailed for this place which he had heard was in possession of the forces under Gen. M'Gregor. On his arrival here, M'Gregor had abandoned the post, which was then held by Hubbard and Irwin, with the rabble which had been collected from the streets of Charleston South Carolina, and Savannah. After considerable contention for the supreme power, between Hubbard and this rabble, and Aury and his black followers, the latter, from the influence of the money brought with them, prevailed, and hoisted the Mexican flag.

These facts, we have no doubt, are all known to you, but as our information is derived from the best authority, the documents in the possession of Gen, Aury, we have thought it proper, and have therefore taken the liberty to make this communication directly to you.

We have the honor to be, with sentiments of the highest respect, your obedient servants, J. D. HENLEY, Commanding naval forces off Amelia Island.

Among the papers communicated by M. Pazos, along with his remonstrance, to the executive, the following document is the most prominent:

Translation of Sir Gregor M'Gregor's commission.

The deputies of Free America, resident in the United States of the north, to their compatriot, Gregor M'Gregor, general of brigade in the service of the United Provinces of New Grenada and Venezuela, greeting:

Whereas it is highly important to the interests of the people whom we have the honor to represent, that possession should be taken, without loss of time, of East and West-Florida, and the blessings of free institutions, and the security of their natural rights, imparted to their inhabitants: In pursuance to our instructions, and in conformity to the desires of our respective governments, we have commissioned brigadier general Gregor M'Gregor, for the purpose of carrying into execution, either wholly or in part, an enterprise so interesting to the glorious cause in which we are engaged.

Therefore, taking into consideration your zeal and devotion to the republic, we request you, in the name of our constituents, to proceed, on your own responsibility, and that of the above named provinces, to adopt such measures as in your judgment may most effectually tend to procure for our brethren of both the Floridas, East and West, the speedy enjoyment of those great benefits to which they are invited by the advantage of their geographical situation; and for that purpose we authorize you, without departing from the usages and customs of civilized nations in like cases, and the due observance of the laws of the United States, and particularly those regulating their neutrality with foreign powers, to cause vessels to be armed without the limits of their jurisdiction, and provisionally to grant rank to naval and military officers, until the government, to be established by the free will of the said people, can provide, in the most suitable mode for the arrangement of their several departments: in the execution of all which, the instructions delivered to you of this date will serve as your guide.

Here we find three deputies from three provinces and a proxy for a fourth constituting, within the United States an officer with, in fact, almost imperial powers, if he had been able to carry them into execution. The expedition was therefore, in its origin, as well as in its progress in direct violation of our laws.

The following is the reply of the secretary of state to the remonstrance of M. Pazos, against the occupation of Amelia, and is the last of the series, a part of which we have already given.

French Creek Boarding School.

The following is published for the information of Parents:

HAVING long believed that a School on a plan different from most others in many respects, would be beneficial to society, and apprehending that with all its cares, and the responsibility inseparable from such a concern, I could more chearfully devote my time to the education of children than to any other business, I have concluded to establish a BOARDING SCHOOL for GIRLS.—With this view I have purchased the FRENCH CREEK FARM, four miles east of the yellow springs, on the Norristown and Philadelphia road, situated in Pikeland and Vincent townships, Chester county, twenty-seven miles from Philadelphia, combining many conveniencies for the support of such an institution; and having let the farm, etc. in a way calculated to supply the family with provisions, I propose to devote my attention, with the aid of suitable assistants, to the education of the children who may be placed under my care.

In selecting the pupils, it is not proposed to be governed entirely by their ages, nor to require that they shall all be members of the religious society of Friends; but as the school rules will be very few in number and very simple, it is my wish that none may be sent contrary to their own inclination, nor any one who would not be likely to be good examples to the other scholars, and treat them with kindness and affection.

The price for board and tuition will be two hundred Dollars per annum, one quarter always to be paid in advance—no restrictions respecting the kind of clothing are intended, nor respecting the frequency of the changes that parents may require; the washing will be charged at the ordinary price per dozen—children may be admitted for one quarter only, and such as are entered for a longer period, may nevertheless be removed at the expiration of any quarter.—The communication with Philadelphia will be frequent and easy by stage, and a house of entertainment kept by the farmer for the accommodation of persons having business at the school.

Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography and the use of Maps and globes, will be taught, together with such other branches as the progress of the children and experience may render expedient. The school to open the first of the 5th month next. For further information apply to Edward Stabler, Alexandria, or to

Fan-sash Making

METAL FAN-SASHES, of various descriptions, will be made by the subscriber, at his shop, lower end of Duke street. The want of a Metal Fan Sash Manufactory in Alexandria, has hitherto been severely felt by builders and others, who have been compelled to make use of wood, which is neither elegant nor durable. The various forms into which the metal can be shaped have given it a decided superiority, and the difference in the price is very trifling. The subscriber has been at considerable expence in procuring the necessary preparations, and relies on public enterprise for success in the undertaking.

Gentlemen in the country, by sending the dimensions of their sashes, can have them made at the same price as if in town.

I. Thompson, agent, joint proprietor," &c. and should any be offered for sale without said label on them the purchaser may be apprised that they are counterfeit.

James Kennedy & Son,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from

LEE'S MEDICINE STORE,

No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Teres or large round worm; the Ascaridea or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tænia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.—To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Nervous Disorders	Violent cramps in the stomach and back
Consumptions	Indigestion
Lowness of spirits	Melancholy
Loss of appetite	Gout in the stomach
Impurity of blood	Pains in the limbs
Hysteric affection	Relaxations, etc.
Inward weaknesses and debility

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaister.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion,

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflamatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water,

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops

For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.

☞ At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.
